September 9, 2019

“We can't be afraid of change. You may feel very secure in the pond that you are in, but if you never venture out of it, you will never know that there is such a thing as an ocean, a sea. Holding onto something that is good for you now, may be the very reason why you don't have something better.” ~ C. Joybell C.

Announcements

- All parents and families are invited to parent marcher night next week! There will be a booster meeting in the band hall 6-6:45pm and then everyone will head over to the stadium for parent marcher night 7-8pm.
- If you did not pass inspection and made the decision to not stay Friday after the game, then you are expected to attend a 1 hour detention after school on Monday in the band hall (3:45-4:45).
- Part 1 & 2 round 1 pass offs are past due. If you haven't completed them, then you are expected to come after school to get them done! Sign-ups are on the band hall office window.
- Part 1 round 2 pass offs will begin this week! These will be submitted in google classroom.
- Region jazz audition help sessions will continue this week.
- We have officially concluded our Fan-Pledge Fundraiser. We raised $18,766, just shy of our 20k goal! Thank you to everyone who helped out and/or donated to this fundraiser!
- You must be passing all of your classes on Friday, September 20th to be eligible to participate in performances. Keep up with all of your assignments and grades in gradebook viewer! Follow up with your teachers to confirm you don't have any missing assignments. If you need extra help with a particular subject, find a band student who can help you from the tutoring list!
- If you have not enrolled in private lessons yet, I highly recommend that you look at this amazing opportunity that AISD Band students will receive this year!
