Announcements

- Part 1 & 2 round 1 and 2 pass offs are past due. If you haven't completed them, then you are expected to come after school to get them done! Sign-ups are on the band hall office window.
- We will begin Part 3 pass offs this week!
- You must be passing all of your classes on your 6 week progress report to be eligible to participate in performances. All AP courses and Pre Calculus are exempted from eligibility requirements. If you are failing a class that is not exempted, you are still expected to attend rehearsals, and work AMC, but you cannot perform.
- If you have not enrolled in private lessons yet, I highly recommend that you look at this amazing opportunity that AISD Band students will receive this year!

- During class this week on Wednesday we will have a study hall day and make up pass off day. We will not play as a group. You are expected to study, do homework, read a book, or do pass offs. It is not a "free period."
- Region sectionals will begin the week of October 7th. The sectional schedule will be sent out this week!
- The Pilot Point Drumline Contest is for percussionists only. An itinerary will be sent out on Monday!
- If you are wearing a mum for Homecoming, you are not allowed to pin the mum to the uniform. You must make a ribbon, string, etc. so that you can wear it around your neck.
- AMC sign-up sheets will be available this week. Every student is expected to work the contest!
